

STUDENT COUNCIL LEADERSHIP DAY

WHEREAS, our young people are our most valuable resource, and among them will emerge our future business, community and civic leaders; and

WHEREAS, providing our youth with a well-founded understanding of leadership, through education and practical experience, is integral to creating Arizona's next generation of leaders; and

WHEREAS, the Arizona Association of Student Council State Convention is a valuable forum for high school students from across the state to identify and develop leadership skills and opportunities as well as life-long friendships; and

WHEREAS, all schools, government agencies, businesses and organizations are encouraged to recognize and foster leadership qualities in Arizona's youth, providing them with a strong foundation for a "life as a leader."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Elaine M. Scruggs, Mayor of the City of Glendale, Arizona, on behalf of the City Council and myself do hereby proclaim February 8, 2008, as and encourage all to join me in honoring and supporting the fine young men and women who serve as Arizona student council delegates.

In Witness Thereof, I hereunto set my hand this 8th day of February 2008.
